jealous and possessive but your smothering treatment brings the best out of her and you are likely to enjoy the copulation. The credit goes to the tolerant and affectionate you.

Weak Periods

The months of October and November are unfavourable. During this period, you should avoid starting new projects or undertaking long journeys.

Health and Fasting

Health and Diseases: You are susceptible to the following problems related to wind (Vata dosha):

- Frail nerves. According to Ayurveda, the nervous system is related to the humor of wind, the air element. Nerve function is related to the principle of activity and movement; the humor of wind is the only active principle out of the three body humors (bile and mucus are immobile). A massage with oil containing fenugreek seeds that have been cooked in a little vinegar can be very helpful for this condition. Sesame oil produces the greatest benefit.
- Skin problems. As a result of disturbance in the humor of wind (vayu), the body feels dry. This dryness creates many skin problems.
- The use of garlic, ginger, asafoetida, and fenugreek seeds in food, and the avoidance of indigestion, acidity, and constipation can help calm the aggravated humor of wind. However, the excess use of garlic, ginger, and asafoetida can also cause dryness.
- The use of gram flour (chickpea flour) in bread, and the ingestion of carrots or carrot juice, can help cure skin diseases.
- Worrying and uneasiness of mind. Meditation, breathing exercises, deep and slow breathing, morning and evening walks along the side of a flowing river, reading scriptures, chanting the mantra, and the singing hymns, bhajans, can help.
- Increase in sexual urge, lethargy of private organ. By maintaining a healthy diet (not too oily or greasy), by regular use of dates-milk (a mixture of milk and mashed dates that has been boiled and topped with a pinch of saffron), and by oil massage, the lethargy of the male organ can be helped.
- To balance the sexual urge, you could divert your attention to some other interesting subject. This subject can be partially related to sex, however, it must bring the energy into the higher chakras. Sexual energy can be diverted and channeled in other directions so as to function as a creative force. Do some research on the benefits of Sex Transmutation.

- Arthritis. This is another disease created by the aggravated humor of wind. A controlled, gas-free diet, along with regular massage done with Mahanarayan oil or Wintergreen oil (to which eucalyptus oil and mint oils have been mixed in equal proportions) can help.
- Also, swallowing small, round balls of beeswax (the size of a garbanzo bean) for forty consecutive days at the beginning of the winter season is very beneficial.
- Impurity of the blood. Fasting on herbal tea and blood-purifying fruit juices can help this problem. A change in diet to vegetarianism, use of alkaline foods, Use of sprouts, regular morning walks, breathing exercises, and meditation can also cure impurities of the blood.
- Heart troubles. Wearing Rudraksha beads in the form of a necklace or armband can help the heart. Also eating rose petal jam — known as Gulkand, ingesting powdered pearls mixed with cream or honey (and mixed with the ring finger), and avoiding fat and hot spicy food can help the heart. Purification of the abdominal tract, lungs, and chest cavity can be good; breathing exercises, vegetarian diets, alkaline foods, meditation, and listening to relaxing music can help also.
- Diabetes. The use of fenugreek seeds (both as tea and as a spice in foods), breathing exercises, morning walks, gem remedies, and a change in food and daily life habits can help this condition.
- Poisoning, Heat, Eruptions, Jaundice, and Paralysis. These are other ailments for which number you must take precautions after you pass thirty-five.

Fasting: You must observe fast on Thursdays. Offer homage to Jupiter; abstain from eating bananas; abstain from doing laundry, shaving, using cumin seeds, and using oil for massage and in foods (ghee and butter can be used in foods). Additionally when you chose to fast on the full moon day and observe a complete silence, and at night rather than sleep you chant "Vishnu Sahastranam" and meditate, you can

Career Choices

Based on your Full Name

Opportunities

The opportunities for you may span the whole world, ranging from the center of local activity to foreign contacts and foreign businesses. The affairs for you naturally move in wide circles and great achievements. When the desire is awakened to promote civilization, to educate, comfort, and protect mankind, the possibilities are unlimited.

So all-embracing is the scope of service, life's gifts seem to be handed to you on a silver platter. It places you in command of the greatest good life has to offer, because you keep the Law of Higher Purposes as your goal. Only in this way you keep and hold your reward - love, money, and philanthropy.

You are full of imagination, intuition, sympathy, and generosity of such power and high voltage, that you can warm the heart of the mankind when this is poured forth without personal motive and desire. You must be bigger than others in each situation and motive. You must grow in compassion, tolerance, forgiveness, and the understanding of true service to reap the fullness of you promise of greatness and to gain your goal.

Early in life it is hard for you to understand many hurtful experiences of loss, sorrow, and disappointment which may occur until the great love which pervades your soul is turned from the personal to the impersonal. To plan your goal or achievement as a means to personal gain alone, to desire love, money, and power for personal satisfaction only, is to wreck your life, destroy your power to accomplish, and to suffer personal pain and crucifixion.

You're divinely protected. You've a power within yourself to succeed nobly. When you finally learn to love, life, success, and people in unison with the great universal "good" rather than for personal prominence or favor, you receive greater love, personally and impersonally, than you may have ever dreamed of. You attract:

money and fortune

You may make a fortune and just as easily lose it more than once during a lifetime. "Easy come, easy go," for you're generous, impressionable, and idealistic. You can be influenced and imposed upon because of your generosity, giving without reserve, until, eventually, you learn to serve, to promote, and to help without personal loss and without taking from others the responsibility of their own growth and development. You must give to sustain usefulness.

You're blessed with the ability to restore your position, to redeem self from failure, and to reestablish success whenever you desire. As you go forth into life, conscious of the brotherhood of man, serving people, different races and nations; in the realization that God has given you a heart of gold, silver bells of many talents, and a shining faith in the highest good for all, your life becomes great and wonderful.

Vocations and Talents

You, being endowed with imagination, vision, and artistic feeling, are naturally the dramatist, and showman, and succeed through plays, theaters, and the lines of endeavor which appeal to the emotions of others.

The literary field-books, novels, publications – give opportunity, for you can express moods and feelings with force and appeal, ascending from the heights of exultation to the depths of despair.

You can be the actor, actress, the painter, the designer, the architect, or along any line calling for feeling, dash, and the use of color in bold and unusual manner; sometimes the mimic and comedian.

Creative ability, artistic talent, and an underlying practical ability enable you to turn objects of little worth into something useful and original.

In the more practical fields, you may be the cabinet maker, upholsterer, technician repairing works of art.

to understand yourself or the great power within, awaiting birth, to bring forth fine deeds and broad attainment. Personal ambition may throb within; love of money and power may color your plans and dreams, only to result in loss and long periods of frustration, because you've failed to listen to the higher command: on earth as it is in heaven. When a balance through moral integrity, spiritual feeling, and material gain has been found, unusual opportunity and worthwhile authority is given, bringing success in any undertaking with the power, influence, recognition, and financial reward so deeply desired.

At no time, the rewards of life are easily attained, however, for it is your destiny to give you to whatever you undertake. Repeated efforts are often necessary to get results, accompanied by mental strain and long periods of frustration. At the same time, repeated efforts and patience, until the work or dream is accomplished, are part of your strength and character.

You find your greatest opportunity through a real purpose or goal; something to plan for that has usefulness beauty, and wide service to the community or nation. You're invariably called upon to plan, supervise, lead, and to take up the reins of the plans and dreams of others in order to bring them to lasting and permanent accomplishment.

Money comes to you through your efficiency, excellent mental powers and good judgment-which is impartial and for the good of everyone concerned. Success for you is the result of work well done, outstanding ability, its own unceasing effort, mental attainment, combined with fine character and right action.

You've a philosophical nature. You like to theorize, to discover the motives and feelings behind human action. You're clever in relating feeling and facts, due to the feminine side of your masculine nature. Often you're the wise counselor, guiding and directing without prejudice or illusions, an ability gained only after many experiences and a few hard knocks by life itself. When the energies are spent striving for wealth and grandeur, the will may be broken by strong outside forces and a new start must

Through these struggles, an inner awareness of higher purposes is finally gained; and a calm unprejudiced management of affairs and fine powers of leadership enable you to rise to emergencies, to become the outstanding character and the "Master Mind," the reward granted from the beginning.

Industry, commerce and organization on a large scale give you broad opportunity to make use of your natural talents. You're the supervisor, director, controller, one who has charge of the business affairs of others. You're successful in building up run-down business activity of firms, corporations, and organizations; able to spot or uncover the weakness and to guide those in association to the goal to be accomplished. A natural efficiency expert, you impartially place facts, both as to cause and effect, in proper relationship.

Governmental affairs, civics, and political management interest you, giving opportunity to direct affairs of state. Statistical departments and the lines of research are fields of success, as you like to gather facts and to relate them to the goal or undertaking to be developed. Civil engineering or building on a large scale, world-wide contracts and agreement are possible, linked with general improvement for many people and combined with education and instruction. Real estate is a broad opportunity, or loans and trust dealing with the buying, selling and management of property and estates. Even in a small way at some time during your life, you're concerned with the management and maintenance of property, land, buildings, or homes.

The literary field attracts you, and success can be gained through printing, publishing, newspapers, magazines correspondence, more in the nature of the reporter, educator or traveler than along lines of drama and romance.

Business having to do with transportation, travel by land, sea, or air are fields of endeavor. You enjoy having more than one iron in the fire. You like to know what is going on in the world. You are seeking, digesting, and adjusting information consistently.

The intelligence service is a natural field, as the keen mind, powers of observation, courage, and strong self-control make you adaptable to many situations.

As the two loops of the number Eight give you a desire to be fair and to see both sides of a question, you make a fine judge and counselor and when trained, take your place among those holding high positions. Recognition for dependability and trust generally crowns your work. Even in a small way, you have a way of being known in your locality for your outstanding character and good works. You dislike subordinate positions and generally seek important contacts. When the command from your spiritual nature for righteousness is carried out, you gain power and influence. You must train and educate your hands and mind. Under no circumstance you must trust to luck.

As nurses, physicians, heads of institutions of health, you find opportunity to manage and direct. You've an outstanding ability to control others, even the insane. This ability to direct and lead is sometimes only discovered when an emergency arises, forcing you to make use of its inner strength, will, courage, and executive skill. Sports, games give pleasure and success. Hotels and summer resorts, especially in the country can lead to desirable business success.

The philosophical side of your nature gives you interest in secret societies where there is form, organization and mystical training. You're often found reading, studying or teaching the mental sciences and ancient philosophies. You are interested in studies of character and vocational analysis. This is brought about because of your desire to know about life and relationship to divine purposes. You've the ability to be a public speaker and are more direct than flowery.

You've musical talent, though rarely trained. You are attracted to musical instruments, find interest and success through antiques, museums, art galleries.

You make money, work with money-making activities, though others may often receive more than you've given the effort, the brains, and the "know-how." However, continue to make use of your mental powers and wise judgment. You're a mental

Based on your Secret Thoughts, Wishes and Motivations Opportunities

You're primarily a law unto self. You find no success in ordinarily established situations or conditions. You seek to appraise, evaluate, and to test the worth of activities on various planes of life.

You refuse to accept any idea, plan, information, or even accepted fact at its surface value. Every-time you ask the "reason why," ultimately leading to discovery beyond the scope of the average mind.

You're the thinker, the student of life's finer relationships, and are ever dissatisfied until you link the known with the unknown. You're constantly urged on by your analytical mind to discover hidden facts. Thus you become the discoverer, the scientist, even the occultist, the inventor, and ultimately find its success along a specialized and outstanding line of work or undertaking. Knowledge is power for you and your quick, keen, and observing mind adds to your ability to gain position and success.

You rarely find life simple, as you are naturally reserved, quiet, reticent, finding it difficult to express your thoughts and ideas, sometimes confused by an inability to be part of the activities of the everyday life. However, when you train and find your place in the world, you become articulate. You're called from the background to the foreground. Mankind beats a pathway to your door to seek your wisdom and understanding.

You've little interest in frivolous or foolish waste of time or extravagant imagination. You seek knowledge. However, a mystical quality lies underneath your reserved and dominant manner. You've a need to be alone as intuition guides you more than you may wish to acknowledge. You feel and respond to the occult and metaphysical, dream of beauty, romance and heavenly things, and sense the wonder of your own

You're a lucky person, the law of attraction governs your accomplishments, giving you an inner force which draws unexpected help and assistance in surprising ways.

In spite of your cautious and calculating mind you like to take a chance. To gamble is a dangerous game for you, (especially when formed by the number 16/7 a Karmic Number demanding payment in full).

When you depend upon that inner guidance to lead you to knowledge and skill, you perpetually win life's reward. Training, education and wise use of excellent mental powers lead to true and lasting success.

Vocations and Talents

Endeavor to become the skilled worker. With application to the task, you generally gain this distinction. Education and training must be your goal invariably.

If you claim lack of opportunity and education, you've made no use of the public libraries of the country or dared to be true to your longing for knowledge and to know the reasons of things. To drift - due to restlessness or the feeling the grass is greener on the other side of the fence - brings delay and unhappiness.

You love to read and study and must surround yourself with books and scientific periodicals. Even if placed in the most ordinary circumstance, feeling deeply the lack of education, you can find broader opportunities if you apply your mind and hands to the present task, even if seemingly beneath it, until your natural ability eventually leads you to better positions and a higher level of activity.

The vocational field for you is wide and unlimited. You find success through research, calculation, observation, and analysis. You must endeavor to excel and to be expert in what you're doing.

You're the "specialist" with the ability of synthesis as well as analysis. When you gain

You can enter the fields of science, investigation, technical research, and finds opportunity through laboratory and statistical work. Chemistry, invention, history, old and ancient subjects open avenues of interest and business success.

You can succeed through insurance and mathematical lines of businesses - are generally quick at figures, charts, and graphs.

Law is a splendid field for you, often the criminal law and the technical rather than the general practice. Medicine, medical research, the surgeon, often the brain specialist, or some outstanding line of specialization in the field of healing and health can be your career.

You deal successfully with books, literature, and various lines of education. You are fundamentally the educator. Professors of universities and schools give wide interest and success.

Due to your power of observation and hunches, you make a good detective, criminologist, secret service person; and the ability to be silent and self-controlled helps in these fields.

You're artistic and often the connoisseur of literature, sometimes of food - giving opportunity through high class restaurants. Having skill with your hands, you can develop skill in carving, etching, and the use of finer tools and instruments.

You find interest and opportunity through occult teaching and secret societies and religion. ## Main Challenge

Your Hidden and Undeveloped Talents: You must read this section carefully to understand the challenges you must overcome in order to succeed in your life.

Challenge No: 0

The challenge is essentially an obstacle encountered in the early years of life, at least, due to the emphasis placed on the negative extreme of the potential. When no conscious efforts are made to overcome the obstacles, it may have a substantial adverse impact on your life. You can achieve this by converting the negative emphasis of the early years to positive potential.

The challenge represents experiences that are likely to occur frequently in your life. It shows what to strengthen or modify that you may see a clear road ahead. However, in the childhood, just about everyone approaches these situations negatively. By using the willpower, you can learn how to deal with the same forces in a constructive manner. In that case, when the situations recur -- instead of representing obstacles, the situation will provide potential for positive growth and development. When this is accomplished, the life is brought into the channels of the power and progress and lack of friends, funds, opportunity and success become things of past.

This being your 3rd challenge is also considered as your main challenge as the impact of this challenge begins with your birth and lasts for life-time. That means, the faster you over-come this challenge; the faster your growth will take place.

Do not be discouraged because you have a Cipher Challenge. In many ways it is a special privilege. A cipher gives you broad opportunity in any direction you may choose. You can either have 'Everything or Nothing' depending on your mentality or desire. You have reached a point in your evolution when you are now ready to be trusted to choose for yourself.

Cipher takes a place of number 9 challenge. It indicates that there is a warm soul and a universal consciousness back of it. There may be big experiences to take, but the latent force to meet it is there.

During this entire period, it is as if God is standing next to you; and waiting to say "Tathastu" (Your wish is my command) to whatever you ask for. The key to success in such a situation is thinking big and having a positive attitude before you ask. Use this blessed period to create a possibility, a future that asks you to be bigger person than you think you are. Create a future that moves you, touches you and inspires you. A future that will make a positive impact in your life as well as in the lives of people around you.

Consciously avoid wasting such a privileged time lazing around and ignoring your critical responsibilities.

This is a less demanding challenge. Growth is allowed to take place without any particularly serious obstacle. This does not mean that there will be no challenges on your path, but there is no single and consistent challenge during this period.

You are being challenged to stay faithful and focused on your highest ideals. There is an opportunity to go deeper within yourself, and discover the inner being that is you.

Create your own world. When you fill this challenge with love, compassion and true helpfulness to man-kind, your work and your undertakings will succeed surprisingly well.

During this period a make your choices based on your Name Number (Expression) and outstanding talents (Life Path). Read the description of these two carefully several times.

During this period, you must cultivate a desire to make the world a better place. A Cipher gives you broad opportunity in any direction you may choose—it indicates there is a warm soul and a universal consciousness back of it. There may be big experiences to take, but the latent force to meet those is there.

The Probable General Influence of The Life Path Direction.

This being an integrative period of Life Path it covers that later years of your life: the closing of the career (sometimes accompanied by the culmination of the career) and the retirement period, years often devoted to reflection and integration of all that has gone before. The "FEEL" of this period is heavily dependent on the growth and satisfaction of the previous period. Lack of development in the previous period may leave a residue of pain, guilt, or resentment which may strongly affect this time.

This is a time to specialize. Think deeply and contemplate on deeper questions of life. Study a subject you enjoy in depth. During this period you may find yourself into philosophical fields, science & technology, metaphysics or into some branch of research work. You will find yourself deeply interested in occult sciences and study of being.

You have excellent intuition, and a mind that can penetrate beneath the surface of any subject you commit to. Focus your energies and thoughts. You will be concerned with inner development and might achieve spiritual perfection. Meditation, contemplation, and self reflection are means of inner achievement.

You may not be active socially. Develop wisdom. Relationship may seem burdensome at times, as you desire to spend time alone. The inner life is so compelling that you will want to immerse yourself in it. Share your knowledge by teaching, counseling, or simply talking to others.

Your unexplainable behavior with relations may bring serious problems in domestic and/or official life. Some unexpected happenings and/or selfishness can make life very difficult for normal living and the continuation of relationships.

Future 2018

Characters Affecting This Year: [I,P,D]

Character I: There is an opportunity to attract wealth and financial protection. Ability to understand the needs of other people opens the way to success and money. The scope of opportunity is limited only by your character and desires.

The power to attract help and influence necessary to get results is always present. Failure through mistakes or over-optimism can be changed to fortune and wealth when the creative talents are cultivated and the intuition awakened. When a consistent effort is made, luck follows and the desires are attained.

A strong desire to improve the home and environment give opportunity for use of the imaginative talents and love of the beautiful. A desire for perfection leads to beautiful creations and work.

Country life is the true environment rather than the crowded city. A desire to be alone and to get away from confusion and noise brings this about.

The feelings, emotions and impressions are very strong during this period and must be controlled consciously. Moods and depths of feeling can lead to loss of opportunity and scattered forces or to unreliable traits of character.

While sensitiveness and impressionability are the guides to success, it may also lead to a very disturbed life, especially when allowed to control your attitudes, words, and feelings.

A dominant character in the environment or business activities may cause unhappiness and lead to sorrow and separations.

Many troubles are brought about by others, often exaggerated in importance by sensitiveness. Jealousy and resentment result when the individual responds to others and the environment with uncontrolled emotion. It is necessary to think and act with

It gives recognition for knowledge and skill but does not always bring the large financial reward or the return deserved. However, through patience and perseverance, the position is maintained, resulting in authority for the skill and knowledge, later on. You must apply your mind to the tasks which present

It is not a period of luck, the grass is not greener on the other side of the fence.

Too many changes and restlessness cause delay and missed opportunity. Travel is enlightening, but for the purpose of gaining knowledge and information to add to the original plan or undertaking.

Too many changes and restlessness cause delay and missed opportunity. Travel is enlightening, but for the purpose of gaining knowledge and information to add to the original plan or undertaking.

Any feeling of lack of education or fear of the self will be overcome through study, reading, observation, and the courage to follow the mental interests which are deep in the nature. Through this, an idea or a skill will be developed to give a financial return, perhaps later on.

The mental energy should not be wasted. Too much caution, moods, and fear—of others or of the self—lead to inertia and lack of accomplishment.

A certain amount of will, drive, and positive thinking take away any feeling of repression or limitation. Dare to follow, investigate and to use the talents along any line of science and education. Take an interest in the occult, the spiritual, and the subjective phase of mental science. From this idea, formula, or theory; a book or a teaching may be born.

There is money to be made, but often very little for the self. Partnerships and marriage bring problems and need of understanding, generally because the letter P is not always as companionable as love and romance demand, or as generous.

Build up the health through periods of rest, being alone, and right diet. Diet is important at this time.

You may hold fast to a purpose and still not be overshadowed by gloom. Some of the ideas and projects that were started or implemented two years ago would begin to show some results. Enjoy them. Put your best foot forward and do everything possible to improve yourself.

There is a "quickenning" force operating in your affairs. Make use of the creative, inspirational, and imaginative ideas and ideals which flood your heart. Fasten on to the dreams and visions which flash through your mind from time to time this year. Use of friendship, inspiration and imagination can mean improved finances and happier associations.

Do not drift along and want everything without effort. Do not allow yourself to be disturbed emotionally about what others do. Else, this can be a wasted and an unhappy year.

When you make a real effort to express and carry out some of these ideas in a constructive manner, this can be one of the happiest years of your life.

Friends will be of importance and value. You must try to make new friends and to join with the old ones, especially those who are attempting to do creative and worthwhile things in the world. There is a personal opportunity through words, lectures, and writings expressed in a constructive manner. However, don't talk out of turn, as through talk, gossip, and careless speech, unhappy problems could develop.

During the early part of the year, make sure of all of your relationships and associations so as not to get on a detour. Even this creative year calls for good common sense. Talk your ideas over with others to help you find the way, but do not be talked out of them.

Future 2019

Characters Affecting This Year: [I,P,I]

Character I: There is an opportunity to attract wealth and financial protection. Ability to understand the needs of other people opens the way to success and money. The scope of opportunity is limited only by your character and desires.

The power to attract help and influence necessary to get results is always present. Failure through mistakes or over-optimism can be changed to fortune and wealth when the creative talents are cultivated and the intuition awakened. When a consistent effort is made, luck follows and the desires are attained.

A strong desire to improve the home and environment give opportunity for use of the imaginative talents and love of the beautiful. A desire for perfection leads to beautiful creations and work.

Country life is the true environment rather than the crowded city. A desire to be alone and to get away from confusion and noise brings this about.

The feelings, emotions and impressions are very strong during this period and must be controlled consciously. Moods and depths of feeling can lead to loss of opportunity and scattered forces or to unreliable traits of character.

While sensitiveness and impressionability are the guides to success, it may also lead to a very disturbed life, especially when allowed to control your attitudes, words, and feelings.

A dominant character in the environment or business activities may cause unhappiness and lead to sorrow and separations.

Many troubles are brought about by others, often exaggerated in importance by sensitiveness. Jealousy and resentment result when the individual responds to others and the environment with uncontrolled emotion. It is necessary to think and act with more love, tolerance, and compassion.

There are no limits to the use of the talents, from the very practical to the heights of music, composition, and drama. Influence and affluence flow throughout this period. Keep physically fit.

- Events of significance.
- Often a dramatic time of the life.
- A tolerant and sensitive attitude will be helpful.
- Possibility of delays.
- Strong emotions likely.
- Deep feelings, high sensitivity, loving and giving will help in ventures.
- Emotional confusion, repressed feelings, oversensitivity are likely to impede development.
- A fine balance is necessary but takes effort to maintain.
- Nervous tension, worry or moodiness may be difficult to avoid.
- Business opportunities.
- Often related to humanitarian or philanthropic endeavors.
- Attend to matters of health, possibly related to emotional upsets.

Character P: The opportunities are through scientific, educational, and specialized lines of work and thinking. It directs the experiences, with some limitation, to an awakening of the mind and for cultivation of the mental and scientific talents.

It gives recognition for knowledge and skill but does not always bring the large financial reward or the return deserved. However, through patience and perseverance, the position is maintained, resulting in authority for the skill and knowledge, later on. You must apply your mind to the tasks which present themselves at the beginning of the period that will lead to skills and awakened talents later on.

It is not a period of luck, the grass is not greener on the other side of the fence.

Too many changes and restlessness cause delay and missed opportunity. Travel is enlightening, but for the purpose of gaining knowledge and information to add to the original plan or undertaking.

Too many changes and restlessness cause delay and missed opportunity. Travel is enlightening, but for the purpose of gaining knowledge and information to add to the original plan or undertaking.

Any feeling of lack of education or fear of the self will be overcome through study, reading, observation, and the courage to follow the mental interests which are deep in the nature. Through this, an idea or a skill will be developed to give a financial return, perhaps later on.

The mental energy should not be wasted. Too much caution, moods, and fear—of others or of the self—lead to inertia and lack of accomplishment.

A certain amount of will, drive, and positive thinking take away any feeling of repression or limitation. Dare to follow, investigate and to use the talents along any line of science and education. Take an interest in the occult, the spiritual, and the subjective phase of mental science. From this idea, formula, or theory; a book or a teaching may be born.

There is money to be made, but often very little for the self. Partnerships and marriage bring problems and need of understanding, generally because the letter P is not always as companionable as love and romance demand, or as generous.

Build up the health through periods of rest, being alone, and right diet. Diet is important at this time.

A whole field of intellectual interests, training, and advancement for a better way of living and finer use of the talents opens up in this period. It is a time to look to the more subjective levels of living, to try to understand the principles of being and thought, to turn aside from objective interests for the time being. It is a time to "delve" into the occult and higher sciences and their principles and laws-to study them, to use them, to write about them, and to make them a means of progress and advancement in business and in all associations.

Strange occurrences, unusual circumstances and happenings may force a new look at what life is. Psychic experience may bring awakenings. Research and scientific investigation can bring business improvement or a new career. Literary and educational pursuits bring results.

A possible transition through interests and activities never thought of before, with help in the end or at just the right time.

There is a mental test to take; there may be loss and separation, but these events will force your thoughts and interests in a new direction. You must put aside the feelings of depression, limitation and separation, and the fear of being alone through faith and realization. Learn to do meditation everyday and you will see the magical revelations and rewards when poise and inner tranquility are maintained.

Take care of your health matters. Marriage may be delayed or troubled. However, marriage can take place when both partners have the interests on the same level of thinking.

A long period of 7 Essences: The period offers a opportunity for study, mental development and scientific work or discovery. It can bring retirement from social life and place you among those who are doing the scientific and educational work of the world. However, the group activities and freedom to work are likely to lead to good research work or some specialization on the line of interest.

Personal Year 2019

Directing Your Affairs

Work hard, consolidate the details and lay the foundation for future rewards

This year things may be moving toward you just the same. But the accumulation is for the future and not for immediate use. You must wait, perfect, reflect and keep quiet.

This is a year to work. Avoid too much loafing and being too easy on yourself. Else you will suffer in health and won't get much satisfaction out of your leisure. In these 12 months, you must dig, prepare, cultivate and build if you want to have a real vacation next year. The plans and inspiration of last year must now be put into more concrete form.

Colors to help you "win" this year are Blue, Green, Emerald, Silver, and Coffee

Test everything for practicality and stability. Square up past mistakes and figure out how to avoid new ones. Work out the details of that project you have been turning over in your mind. Strengthen your weak places. Put your affairs in perfect order. Look well to your health—especially in matters of diet. Be sane and rational in all things. KEEP BUSY.

During this year, you are likely to have very little time for personal pleasure. Circumstances from time to time will force you to look at things from a material point of view. You must "stay on the job" whether you want to or not. By December end,

Govind Vedaprakash Shandilya

Success Coach, Author & Numerologist

you will definitely feel considerable satisfaction in your accomplishments.

You must manage well, face the facts and get down to business as the year requires. You can lay a foundation for security and lasting conditions in the future. Order, system, organization, management and application are important. In business, property, agreements, or legal matters, attend to details with patience and honesty.

Health and financial matters of family, place the responsibility upon your shoulders. Attend to these things with love, and attempt to get orderly results this year. Then you may have the freedom and fuller life which next year promises.

This is a right time for building homes and property. It is also a suitable time for doing things which give a practical foundation for the future.

This is a splendid time for you to make the effort to put your ideas into concrete form. However you must be thrifty, careful, economical, and efficient in doing this. There is little to be gained through trusting to luck this year.

At times finances may seem practical and slow, or expenses high. But through good common sense, you can meet all requirements and come out ahead.

Avoid being careless or evading the responsibility and work—you may regret it later. More than that; you could find the burden still present when next year comes.

Personal Month

Personal Year 2020

Directing Your Affairs

Obstacles are removed; new opportunities bring important changes—time to start in new directions

This year you are active, seeking, expressing and achieving. Things are moving with and for you. You can see the results of your activities and may expect responses to your efforts.

This is a year of progress and freedom to go where you please. Make sure that you go somewhere. You will discover new opportunity outside the ordinary routine. Let go of many old things and make room for new ones. Welcome new situations, places and people.

The colors this year to help you "win" are Pink, Cherry, Wisteria, and Claret.

Do a lot of advertising. If you have a business of your own, present it with a new angle. Don't let the prevailing atmosphere of change and variety make you restless. Instead take advantage of it to learn something new.

Avoid scattering yourself and burn up your energies. Let your adaptability keep the balance between concentration and explosion. Do a variety of things and make sure that each one of those is of use to you. GET OUT OF THE RUT.

Changing conditions and eventful happenings will add new life and color to your undertakings. It will force you into step with progress. The change, freedom from routine, and unexpectedness should be agreeable to you.

There is an element of uncertainty running through the year. You may experience a feeling of being unsettled from time to time. Yet the year affords you a splendid opportunity for advancement and progress.

Keep alert to what is going on in the world, and an open mind. Then you will find you are able to renew all your affairs. clearing up old conditions for more personal freedom and personal advancement.

This year, you have a right to a fuller life than during the past four years. Without change there is no growth. But to "live" does not mean to sow wild oats (e.g. having sex with many partners). Instead, plan a definite goal for advancement. Be resourceful enough to make the adjustments which are necessary for improvement.

You may feel restless, impatient with things which move along slowly. You may experience resentment towards those who hold you down or bind you. Avoid taking in hurried actions for haste makes waste. It could lead to deep regret later on in the cycle of life you are now passing through.

Think win-win. All changes should be to the advantage of others as well as yourself, if you wish to get the best out of the year. Make every effort to open a channel for progress. Avoid quarreling or burning your bridges behind you. Do not jump impulsively from the frying pan into the fire. Break up some of the old routine and turn many of the details over to others but with wisdom and discretion. The eventfulness, excitable conditions, and your own inner unrest can make the year active.

The changes, new contacts, and new opportunities may confuse you. Accept them all in the spirit of progress and advancement. Live up to the "push" which life is exerting upon you. Get fun out of meeting conditions. Show versatility of thought and resourcefulness in action. Travel, move, or at least do something to freshen up.

Future 2021

Characters Affecting This Year: [I,P,I]

Character I: There is an opportunity to attract wealth and financial protection. Ability to understand the needs of other people opens the way to success and money. The scope of opportunity is limited only by your character and desires.

The power to attract help and influence necessary to get results is always present. Failure through mistakes or over-optimism can be changed to fortune and wealth when the creative talents are cultivated and the intuition awakened. When a consistent effort is made, luck follows and the desires are attained.

A strong desire to improve the home and environment give opportunity for use of the imaginative talents and love of the beautiful. A desire for perfection leads to beautiful creations and work.

Country life is the true environment rather than the crowded city. A desire to be alone and to get away from confusion and noise brings this about.

The feelings, emotions and impressions are very strong during this period and must be controlled consciously. Moods and depths of feeling can lead to loss of opportunity and scattered forces or to unreliable traits of character.

While sensitiveness and impressionability are the guides to success, it may also lead to a very disturbed life, especially when allowed to control your attitudes, words, and feelings.

A dominant character in the environment or business activities may cause unhappiness and lead to sorrow and separations.

Many troubles are brought about by others, often exaggerated in importance by sensitiveness. Jealousy and resentment result when the individual responds to others and the environment with uncontrolled emotion. It is necessary to think and act with

Directing Your Affairs

Domestic duties; Love, Marriage and Home; and Service to Community

This is a year of waiting, perfecting, reflecting and keeping quiet. Things may be moving toward you just the same, but the accumulation is for the future and not for immediate use.

This year you have more responsibilities than you had last year. You are needed in many directions and will be called upon to make adjustments for those less able to do so than you are. Narrow yourself down a bit and plan to enjoy your home life.

Colors for this year to help you "win" are Orange, Heliotrope, Henna, and Scarlet.

You will be surrounded by love and friendliness and contentment. But you must allow yourself to attract them. Be thorough and conscientious about everything you do, finishing all you undertake.

It isn't a year for big accomplishment. Things may seem to be at a standstill, but the universe is making many unseen adjustments in your own life.

What is yours, will see your face. A fine and friendly influence for marriage and all home conditions throughout the year.

This is your "duty" year. You have responsibilities to meet, obligations to pay up, and duty to accept. Service is the keynote to success and happiness this year.

There is something to be "talked over". It may be necessary for you to take advice from friends, relatives, or those in authority. Be willing to make the adjustment and to consider the good of others as well as yourself. Then you would realize improvement in all the affairs of your life.

Keep your ideals high too, and try to avoid any feeling of resentment because of unfairness. Give more than you receive; it brings the desired improvement and more settled conditions.

You may even have the opportunity to instill ideals into the hearts and minds of younger people. For that you must live true to those ideals yourself this year.

There is a "care" of some sort present. This may be due to family, relatives, business responsibility, or through matters of health. Money would come to meet these obligations if you accept them as a privilege and do not make them a burden.

Others may impose upon you or try to take advantage of your good nature. With effort and good business judgment, you can make fine progress.

Get settled in your business affairs for future improvements. Bring about more satisfactory living conditions and domestic relationships. Love affairs may bring interest.

The action of the year is slow but it is only in this way that the ultimate good can be attained. This may seem to be more noticeable during the months of March, April, May and up to about June. But from then on, your plans and adjustments can be pushed forward.

During September-November life may still bring much responsibility and need of helping others. By October you will realize you have worked things out to a more definite conclusion.

Future 2022

Characters Affecting This Year: [N,P,I]

Character N: This is a very progressive period with more mental control and a good time to gain position out in the world along with lines of the talents that you possess. When you stop resisting the routine, a lot of money can be gained and financial interests moved forward. You will have several interesting experiences and an active life during this period, but home conditions must be considered which may be slightly unsettled with some unhappiness under the surface.

This is a time for husband and wife to grow together and to take a real interest in each other's work or career. Enterprise and new mental interests make this a fine period of the life.

It is a period of experience with constantly changing conditions, repeated opportunities, exciting circumstances, the opening of new lines of endeavor with more mental control. You are advised and urged to accept changes, public activity, and to keep up-to-date.

Many experiences and unexpected problems happen due to haste and impulsive actions. It is wise not to quarrel with business associates, neighbors, or loved ones, for this can lead to legal troubles and/or separations. The affairs of the government and law enter into the experiences and are not to be disregarded.

A strong desire for freedom may bring breaks in association. Freedom should not be considered a chance to break all rules and regulations. Resourcefulness will overcome many difficulties. It is a time to move forward to renew and renovate the activities at home or in business. Public contact will bring fun, travel, interest, and help to promote business.

Marriage is uncertain when freedom is taken carelessly. Sudden marriages or separations may bring legal matters.

Good for all lines of work which need the support of the people. The interesting experience during the period will be Money today, not as much tomorrow, but there when needed when the efforts are for the good of all people concerned.

- Sudden, unexpected, unusual and/or exciting events.
- Constant change and activity.
- Possible change in work situation.
- New friends.
- Desire for freedom may bring separation from old friends.
- Love affairs.
- Sudden, unusual, often short-lived.
- Marriage.
- Close if unsettled areas have been previously resolved.
- Lack of balanced emotions cause problems.
- Fluctuating finances.
- Travel.

Character P: The opportunities are through scientific, educational, and specialized lines of work and thinking. It directs the experiences, with some limitation, to an awakening of the mind and for cultivation of the mental and scientific talents.

It gives recognition for knowledge and skill but does not always bring the large financial reward or the return deserved. However, through patience and perseverance, the position is maintained, resulting in authority for the skill and knowledge, later on. You must apply your mind to the tasks which present themselves at the beginning of the period that will lead to skills and awakened talents later on.

It is not a period of luck, the grass is not greener on the other side of the fence.

Too many changes and restlessness cause delay and missed opportunity. Travel is enlightening, but for the purpose of gaining knowledge and information to add to the original plan or undertaking.

Too many changes and restlessness cause delay and missed opportunity. Travel is enlightening, but for the purpose of gaining knowledge and information to add to the original plan or undertaking.

Any feeling of lack of education or fear of the self will be overcome through study, reading, observation, and the courage to follow the mental interests which are deep in the nature. Through this, an idea or a skill will be developed to give a financial return, perhaps later on.

The mental energy should not be wasted. Too much caution, moods, and fear—of others or of the self—lead to inertia and lack of accomplishment.

A certain amount of will, drive, and positive thinking take away any feeling of repression or limitation. Dare to follow, investigate and to use the talents along any line of science and education. Take an interest in the occult, the spiritual, and the subjective phase of mental science. From this idea, formula, or theory; a book or a teaching may be born.

There is money to be made, but often very little for the self. Partnerships and marriage bring problems and need of understanding, generally because the letter P is not always as companionable as love and romance demand, or as generous.

Build up the health through periods of rest, being alone, and right diet. Diet is important at this time.

This period brings an awakening to higher levels of living. Faith overcomes the problems and helps make the period interesting, very active, and successful. A close tie with the female side of the family is often realized.

The power to attract help and influence necessary to get results is always present. Failure through mistakes or over-optimism can be changed to fortune and wealth when the creative talents are cultivated and the intuition awakened. When a consistent effort is made, luck follows and the desires are attained.

A strong desire to improve the home and environment give opportunity for use of the imaginative talents and love of the beautiful. A desire for perfection leads to beautiful creations and work.

Country life is the true environment rather than the crowded city. A desire to be alone and to get away from confusion and noise brings this about.

The feelings, emotions and impressions are very strong during this period and must be controlled consciously. Moods and depths of feeling can lead to loss of opportunity and scattered forces or to unreliable traits of character.

While sensitiveness and impressionability are the guides to success, it may also lead to a very disturbed life, especially when allowed to control your attitudes, words, and feelings.

A dominant character in the environment or business activities may cause unhappiness and lead to sorrow and separations.

Many troubles are brought about by others, often exaggerated in importance by sensitiveness. Jealousy and resentment result when the individual responds to others and the environment with uncontrolled emotion. It is necessary to think and act with more love, tolerance, and compassion.

There are no limits to the use of the talents, from the very practical to the heights of music, composition, and drama. Influence and affluence flow throughout this period. Keep physically fit.

- Events of significance.

Essence: 3

This is a time for self-improvement and advancement along the lines of the talents. Opportunity is present for personal expression with the help of friends and loved ones. Life encourages the pursuit of personal interests that are constructive and in art, design, acting, music, literature, religion, and the more cultural aspects of living. Whatever the interests, more imagination and optimism must be cultivated for a wider and broader contact with the world.

Ideas expressed in words or speech can advance the career; and if there has been limitation in the expression of the feelings and abilities, it is important to make the effort to find useful interests rather than to retire within the self or live in repressed emotions.

Children bring interest and mutual happiness. Trips for business and pleasure widen the horizon. Make new friends, enjoy old friends, and express the spirit of friendship. Enjoy the love affairs and emotional experiences which can be lovely and bring great happiness. Avoid selfishness and critical attitudes of mind.

At the same time, the desire for pleasure, fun, and social activity, apart from useful endeavor, will bring scattered forces, loss of money, foolish action, resulting in gossip and regret. It can also mean loss of position and standing unless the emotions are constructively expressed.

Universal Year 2022

Personal Year 2022

Directing Your Affairs

Sit alone, concentrate on past, present and future, plan further activities, analyze and meditate

You are waiting, perfecting, reflecting and keeping quiet; your tides are "out". Things may be moving toward you just the same, but the accumulation is for the future and not for immediate use.

This year is not a happy time for social activities or too much association with crowds. It is a sort of sabbatical year and you should spend more time than usual in quiet pursuits and be interested in the more intellectual phases of living. Plan to spend a good deal of time alone and get acquainted with your powers, past mistakes and future desires. Colors to "win" with this year are Purple, Brick, and Pearl.

Don't brood over the past—simply look it over and put it where it belongs. Let everything pertaining to business remain where it is. It is not a time for expansion or change—only for reflection and perfection.

Analyze everything you have or are doing. Deepen the roots of everything that is worth keeping. It is a good financial vibration if YOU don't strain after money for its material uses. Await developments.

This is a very important year for you as so much depends upon a right state of mind.

Quality should be your standard so you should reach out for more understanding of life and try to gain a more intuitive insight into your affairs.

Between January this year and January next year, you are likely to be conscious of a desire to know more and to specialize your knowledge and talents. You may have a desire to be more alone; to get away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. If you can do this it will be to your advantage for you should rest, build up your health, and improve your mind.

What you think is of great importance, for there is much to think out, and it is much better for you to say very little and to think clearly, than to fight for your rights, argue, or attempt to explain. This is a mental house-cleaning year and you should set your mental and spiritual house in order.

During the year you will have many interesting and unusual experiences through being left alone and through conditions over which you seem to have no control. But you are laying a foundation for inner strength and power and for soul realization which will make big changes in your life.

Out of the year will come a goal and plan of great importance which can hardly be realized until later; when you will move forward in life to a new level of expansion and living.

Your desire to understand yourself, your quiet & studious attitude, may be misunderstood, and you may be criticized or condemned because you seem so determined to think for yourself and to make a better use of your mental faculties.

People in your home, business associations, and social life may be hard to understand, and you may experience unreasonableness in others. Just make sure you are not unreasonable yourself, for this could cause misunderstandings and disappointments in your associations.

Reason things out with fairness, understanding, and poise, and you will find unexpected reward. Similarly allow others to work out their affairs without interference from you.

You are in the school of life this year and are under higher discipline; if you seem to be out of things, it is only to awaken in you a better understanding of yourself and of life's finer relationships.

Avoid any feeling of confusion, humiliation, or repression. This is a waiting year for you, but there is no real limitation which you cannot overcome through poise, faith, and inner attraction. In fact, in spite of the seeming problems, this can be one of the most wonderful years of your life; when you do not try too hard, or force issues; the year will bring you recognition and carry you to the front in your sphere of life. This is a transition period, bringing release of some sort as a reward, when the year is done.

What I know for sure is when you choose to meditate everyday for 30-45 minutes in the early morning you will automatically develop inner poise, faith and inner peace. This will help greatly in dealing with life issues successfully.

By your presence, thought, and ways of doing things you can change the ordinary into lovely. You will have ample opportunities and life will give you many gifts. To keep them for yourself, you must stand for fine, philanthropic, charitable and beautiful things that life has to offer. Make music, art, romance, drama, colour, ideality, and perfection the standards of your life.

Love, tolerance, compassion, understanding, and generosity are the keynotes to your success and happiness. You must learn to express forgiveness for people in your life. Without it, you may meet many experiences and tests where you might even seem to fail.

Learn that true love is service to the many rather than to the one. Then whatever you desire in love and companionship will come to you. To cling to personal love, possessions, and power might be to lose them forever. When you express love as a Divine Law, you will receive greater love than you have ever dreamed of.

There is a tremendous power wrapped up in your nature which you can turn on to

Heart's Desire (Motivation)

Your Secret Thoughts and Wishes | What you really like to BE and DO

(This gets 20% weightage in your story of Life)

You are selective and discriminating, for deep in your heart there is a desire for the best life has to offer. A keen sense of perfection governs your life and your undertakings. You aim high and strive for the perfect result. You must keep a sight of your ideals. Sometimes you reach for a goal that is almost unattainable. That makes it difficult for others to understand you or to live up to your expectations of them.

Your sense of the "fitness of things" is too strong. You derive your greatest satisfaction from being sure everything is just right. You disregard any effort to be accurate and certain as a loss of time.

You desire knowledge and want to know the reason why. You are a person who declines to accept things at their surface value. Before you accept anything, you seek to understand the motives, causes, and underlying principles. Only then you make them a part of your life. Your ideals are well defined. You refuse to accept anything — friendship, opportunity, or environment — unless it measures up to your standards.

You have a deep intuitive feeling. You sense and feel hidden values, higher principles, spiritual and occult standards. You must accept them and use them in your everyday affairs. If you do, they will make you outstanding — at least in your circle of activity. That will enable you to uncover and develop the hidden laws of life for the improvement of humanity.

Your desire for the best makes you particular about your associations. You are often quiet in manner and have a great deal of pride. From time to time you experience the desire to get away from the jazz and excitement of the world. Now and then you may want to live a life of solitude and serenity on mental horizons.

No matter how active your life is you must make it a practice to take time out to rest.

You must learn to relax and to be alone, to think, study and meditate. That way you will make fewer mistakes. And discover inner soul guidance when you have a serious problem to meet.

Your reserved attitude may cause people to consider you distant, proud and hard to meet. Your faculty of analysis may make you appear cool, calculating and suspicious. So be careful of your actions. Allow others to discover your hidden generous spirit especially in love and marriage. You can be exacting and demand explanations from others. That may bring about misunderstanding and separation. When others misunderstand you, seek to overcome the misunderstanding without fail.

At heart, you are a visionary person and you love the odd, the mysterious and the unusual. Keep a broad faith in life itself and in people. Disallow your quiet, reserved nature to suppress you. Go forth with dignity and pride. Be kind and forgiving and value your urge to get the best out of life. Let your charm, distinction and cleverness lift you to an outstanding position in life. When you realize your desires, be sure to share with others, if you want to find true happiness.

Affairs of Love and Emotion: You are something of the stoic — can live without love. You are too selective in friendship and romance and have a high sense of perfection. When you find your mate and give your love, it is deeper and stronger. It is more lasting than your calm, reserved, and even cold manner allows.

An Introvert Number.

Personality

*With the new name This is how others will perceive you

You appear friendly and unpretentious. Others perceive you as a gentle, safe harbour. People are drawn to you because among other reasons, you appear warm, soft and non-threatening.

You must be neat and make cleanliness an important part of your life. You may even be fussy about having everything exactly in detail. You have a pleasing personality with gentle manners.

You must study styles and adapt them to your own personality. Cultivate a knack for wearing simple clothes. Put aside loud or showy apparel. Instead use soft, flowing, easy-to-wear and neat clothing.

Exercise is important to your appearance. It will also be useful in promoting the level of strength you radiate. You are patient and understanding. You are a wonderful listener. You make others feel important and loved. You are sensitive and become tense in a disharmonious atmosphere.

You experienced quite a bit of negative criticism as a child, which made you shy growing up. You may be well past that shyness. Yet, a bit of vulnerability will remain with you and is often sensed by others.

You are a peacemaker. Arguments leave you drained. People sense your desire for harmony. Yet you must avoid being the blank tablet for other's projections.

Though you are strong and ductile, you bend when needed. People may underestimate your strength, yet this is a mistake.

You have a fine sense of beauty and excellent taste. There is a grace in your movements, reflecting your keen sense of harmony and refinement.

Subconscious Self

The confidence you have in Personal Power and Competence.

Your ability to deal with sudden events and situations.

This implies no Karmic Lessons.

You have the ability to deal with different types of situations. Paradoxically you can be aloof, and perhaps indifferent and arrogant. Having done everything at least once, you are rather bored with life. You have a tendency to generalize. You are too impersonal to be greatly concerned.

Although you may think of yourself as considerate — even to the extreme — you may, in fact, be too self-conscious to perceive the messages others are sending out.

The ability to read situations or people properly requires that you become less self-conscious and less inhibited. You may fail to see the need to be alert to the possible pitfalls of the situation.

You may have trouble with relationships simply because you misread others. Perhaps too much of yourself is being projected upon situations or people.

You back down quickly in an argument and can be "bluffed" out of your own opinion. You have a critical viewpoint and are interested slightly in everything. In a crisis, you are philosophical and resigned.

You have splendid powers of organization — at home and out in the world — as you are the executive type. This places you among those who organize, coach, supervise, direct, and govern affairs. You are capable of taking charge of things and are ambitious, energetic and efficient. You are capable of judging people and situations with a fair mind. It gives you authority, recognition, position, and power in social, professional and business world.

You have a philosophical turn of mind and wonderful powers of self-control. You have the courage and energy to repeat your efforts until you reach your goal. You must be at the head of large undertakings, business and professional activities. Small, narrow, routine life does not help in bringing out your strength and efficiency. In fact, an emergency or need does much to bring out your real character and force of initiative.

Your success in life comes from organizing endeavours and plans helpful to many people. You must learn the satisfaction of the material world and the power which comes with its mastery. You will be involved in practical, down-to-earth work. Use your ambitions, organizational ability, and efficient approach to carving a niche for yourself.

You will be concerned and involved with money. You will also learn the power that comes with its proper handling. You will be desirous of obtaining the best and most comfortable material things for yourself. You will be concerned with status — your own status measured against the status of others. With growth and development, you will learn to achieve the power you desire.

You have the ability to inspire others to greater effort. You can do things for yourself and the world in a spectacular and valuable manner. On one hand, you are capable of mastering the hardest problems, through a faith in the spiritual and philosophical law. On the other hand, you are highly commercial, the material in thought and interested only in financial gain. Your best success comes when you strike a balance between these two seemingly opposite nature.

It is very easy for you to lose your way. You may be so immersed in the attainment of material possessions that you will forget that they are just the means to the ends. Often, this lesson is lost or confused. If the material freedom, once achieved, provides no pleasure, you are yet to master the lesson. If the power, once achieved, is misused, you are off the track. You must learn to achieve your goals and also maintain a sense of proportion about those goals. Only when you are able to do this, will you be in a position to grow and develop.

Sometimes you strain, strive, think too much of money. And use much energy doing things that wear you out, driving love and business away instead of attracting them. Avoid striving so hard. Just make sure your judgment is good and take time to do things well. Then your natural executive ability will take you to the top. This judgment is the keynote to your position and authority. It would place you at the head of business and broad professional enterprise.

An Extrovert Number.

The potential of the 3 for creative self-expression and sociability conflicts with the executive potential of the 8 for material achievement. The adaptability of the 3 conflicts with the fixity of the 8.

Bridge Numbers

Making the Relationship between Core Numbers work for you.

Bridge Number 5(8-3): At one end you're business-minded, goal-oriented, determined, and visionary; at the other end you're playful, creative, outgoing, and happy-go-lucky. This combination makes you look unstable. You tend to suppress your creativity in favour of career and business. This can make you overly cautious and slow to make decisions. Your real strength lies in using your creative talents in a business-oriented manner.

Bridge Number 1: Rely on your own strengths and abilities; be more decisive and straightforward when expressing your thoughts and feelings. There is no real need for you to behave according to other's expectations. You need to take charge more often and find original ways of doing things. Avoid being conventional.

Bridge Number 6(8-2): You are both the leader and the diplomat. You have an innate ability to negotiate. However, you may have a broken romantic relationship/s caused in part by over-sensitivity, criticism, a tendency to gossip, and large fluctuations in financial matters.

Bridge Number 6(9-3) You're an artist at heart and you must inspire and motivate large groups of people. The difficulty here is in the suppression of talents, and the lack of serious application.

Bridge Number 4: Be more reliable and punctual. Be practical, methodical and systematic in your endeavours. Keep track of details to avoid chaos. Work on the basics of life. Physical and outdoor activities bring you closer to yourself. Get out in nature, work in the garden, or build a fence. Whatever happens to avoid procrastination.

Bridge Number 2: Avoid rocking the boat too often; be sensitive to the needs and expectations of others. Keep the peace and work to make things run smoothly. Be more cooperative. Instead of confrontations, use your ability to influence others with gentle diplomacy.

Bridge Number 7(9-2): Righteousness – no matter who you are and what you have accomplished – is invariably an obstacle. It brings prejudice, arrogance, and indifference to your nature. The temptation to think that you are spending so much time and effort on the well-being of mankind that you're on your way to sainthood is very strong, and potentially self-deluding. You must learn to be more humble and to take 100% responsibilities for yourself. Saving yourself is a lifetime job.

Bridge Number 5(7-2) : Paradoxically this combination is both disharmonious and potentially gifted. You're sensitive and in need of love and attention, and at the same time very private and inwardly focused. This creates a certain amount of inner conflict. You have a tendency for self-pity and you tend to withdraw as soon as a relationship shows the slightest bit of turmoil. You take criticism too personally. The high potential comes from the combination of analytical power (7) and intuition (2) represented here.

Maturity

Your Final Attainment.

At maturity after the age of 32, you will grow in success and financial reward. You will find yourself deepening your commitment to your work. You will find it easier to overcome difficulties that manifest in your path. Your capacity to use power will grow. Within your community, people will recognize you as a pillar of influence and dependability. You will have to be strong and self-disciplined to avoid sudden painful material losses. Beware of an inflated ego, the surest symptom of an eminent fall.

You must learn to detach from material success. Instead, focus on higher values of mankind. Otherwise, it will rule your personality and make money an obsession. One of your important motivations must be a desire to build, create or market. You must do the business only to enjoy the game of business. People will recognize your wisdom and sheer common sense and offer you important positions. It is possible that you will be given responsibility for the care and management of other's property. You may also be asked to guide large institutions.

Guard against selfishness, accumulation for the sake of status and greed.

At around 32 years of age, you may reevaluate the satisfactions obtained with the material freedom. You may also reevaluate power that has been achieved. At this time in the life, you are likely to revise at least some attitudes and actions in regard to material freedom for achieving deeper satisfaction and a better control of the life.

This mid-life appraisal is apt to focus on

- Whether the position in the current vocation or the current vocation meets your needs for money, power and status. OR
- Your maturity may involve new relation to the material world because of the growth of children, divorce, separation or new feelings about yourself and your earning power. OR your duties and believe in performing them as your yoga. You believe that "Devotion to duty is divine."

You are successful in the execution of any job you undertake and usually finish what you start. This gives you self-confidence, which is the keyword of your life.

You are true to your word and honour your commitments. This makes you dependable. You love order and discipline. You obey the orders of those whom you respect and think to be your superiors. You wish that those younger and subordinate to you do likewise. This sometimes creates problems, because you become dictatorial and tyrannical at home with your dependents. Even if there are deficiencies in your partners, you stand by their side to help you. Your life partners are usually attractive, chaste, loyal, and give you their full support.

You are universal helpers and help everyone, including your enemies, however, only when asked. You are devoted to all good causes and offer your help immediately, without bargaining. You are fond of, and benefit from, travelling. You are privileged to meet celebrities of your time from many fields.

Your main weaknesses are over-ambitiousness, excessive optimism, and extravagance; you exaggerate the truth and are short tempered, uncontrollably dictatorial, jealous, and prideful.

You must consciously...

- Stay away from unnecessary discussions.
- Avoid the company of low people.
- Try to control your tempers and eat and drink in silver pots.
- Spend money carefully. Though money comes to you easily and from many sources, it also goes out easily for objects of decoration and comforts, which creates a financial imbalance. Save money for your future.
- Drinking, smoking, and many sex partners can damage liver quickly.
- Shun overeating and the use of fats and hot spices. Jupiter, the Lord of number 3 people, rules over the liver. Since you work with the energy of liver, you should avoid foods — such as red meat, too much of egg and dairy products — that are hard on it. A damaged liver is unable to metabolize proteins properly and break down the amino acids produced in the body from eating animal-based foods.
- Reduce usage of salt as it contains sodium, which is difficult to process completely by a damaged liver. Avoid canned foods, including soups, meats or vegetables, that are high in salt and sugar, which cause abdominal swelling and fluid retention.

- Use garlic, pepper or spices to flavor foods instead of salt.
- Avoid sugary foods such as candy, ice cream and cake and salty foods like potato chips, which are simple carbohydrates with high levels of sugar and sodium, respectively.
- Eat foods with natural sugars and fibrous carbs, such as strawberries, oranges or apples, to avoid unhealthy levels of sugar and sodium in your liver.
- Chronic alcoholism contributes to the onset of liver damage because it inhibits proper absorption of nutrients, forcing the liver to become toxic. Avoid drinking beer, wine or champagne as well as any form of liquor and even cough syrup.
- Regular use of fenugreek seeds, anise seeds, coconut powder, almonds, black pepper, and honey with a pinch of saffron can be helpful.
- Include milk, cheese and yogurt. Protein is important in overall nutrition, so opt for lean meats from poultry and non-meat protein sources such as beans and nuts. You may also consider trying plant-based products such as soy milk.
- Eat Generous Amounts of Liver-Supporting Vegetables, Herbs & Spices: garlic, onions, broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, collard greens, kale & brussel sprouts. And when you eat them, be sure to slather them in traditional fats to make their nutrients even more accessible. Also, feel free to drink tinctures or teas with milk thistle, or cook with tumeric and cinnamon.
- Foods that cleanse the Liver: Garlic, Grapefruit, Beets and Carrots, Green Tea, Leafy Green Vegetables such as bitter melon, arugula, dandelion greens, spinach, mustard greens, and chicory, avocados, apples, olive oil; alternative Grains like quinoa, millet, and buckwheat, broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, lemons, walnuts and turmeric
- Avoid being proud, overly optimistic, ambitious and boasting about your achievements. Stop losing heart with little failures and be patient.

- Learn to respect your life partner — control your anger, passions and sensuality. Control your dictatorial attitudes at home and allow other members of the family their freedom.
- Massage yourself regularly with oil, to prevent skin troubles. Also avoid acid and gas-producing foods. Eat only when you are hungry.
- Earn money by proper and legal means only.
- Undertake journeys when you feel that the time is unfavourable where you are.
- Learn to say no because your habit of saying yes to everything creates problems. Those who depend on you start expecting things and because yes means nothing to you, this causes disappointment.
- Learn to relax and avoid taking on more work and responsibilities than you can handle, which causes you stress.

How long will it take before you start seeing the visible difference in your life

There is no fixed time. It may take anywhere between 6 months - 1 year after you start implementing the corrected name & also wear the gemstone.

Remember even a childbirth needs a gestation period of 7-9 months after the baby is conceived. So have faith and implement the suggested remedies & get on to work. Leave the results to the universe. Remember only the inspired actions will produce the desired results, so consciously be in action. Also keep track of your growth on a regular basis, as what gets measured, gets done.

During this consultation we have given you various numbers that are in harmony with one another. However, you still have a choice to select the aspect of each number(Constructive, Negative, Destructive). Needless to say, if you find yourself veering towards the negative, you may know that you are getting away from the positive and the negative qualities of that number will pull you further away. In such a case the moment you sense this you must consciously pull up yourself quickly and work towards the constructive aspects. In other words, it is called taking 100% responsibility of your life situations and taking inspired actions.

I wish you a great success in life. May God be with you throughout.

Notes

The missing vibrations in your full name are known as Karmic Lessons. They indicate a particular trait in your character and represent the experiences consciously and deliberately evaded and avoided in the previous birth. Having no previous experience of them, you are ignorant and as a result, you fear these experiences when you are obliged to meet them time and again.

It is suggested that you read and re-read the interpretations of the missing vibrations in your name carefully (Explained later in the report). And imbibe the lessons consciously. You could use these lessons as a base for your Burning Desire.

Remember, Learning is essential for your growth and success. There are two ways of learning- Because of and Inspite of. If you accept the lessons and profit by them because you realise its importance, you will learn the lesson more easily and less painfully.

If you resist, the life will take charge of the entire job. It will force upon you the experiences in the form of knocks and hardships that make you fully conscious of what you lack. This is Karma, the inevitable effect of the cause in spite of yourself.
